Release of Information and Declaration of Intent

I hereby give Youth Unlimited Edmonton permission to contact the persons named as references to ascertain my suitability for volunteer program. I release all such references from liability for any damage that may result from furnishing such evaluations to you.

I give Youth Unlimited Edmonton consent to verify the information provided herein and to contact the references listed. I waive any right to confidentiality and of any right to pursue damages against Youth Unlimited Edmonton for losses caused by the reference's response.

I also grant my permission for Youth Unlimited Edmonton to perform a police records check, for purposes of my protection against any false allegations and for the protection of those I serve. I consent to such an investigation with the understanding that the results will be kept in strict confidence. I agree to adhere to the protection policies as adopted by this Youth Unlimited Edmonton.

I understand that if my character or morals are deemed by Youth Unlimited Edmonton leadership to be inappropriate and/or criminal at any time during my volunteer service, Youth Unlimited Edmonton will be entitled to terminate my assistance without express cause or prior notice regardless of any other oral or written statement by Youth Unlimited Edmonton prior to, at, or following the date of volunteer service.

I understand that Youth Unlimited Edmonton is responsible for the welfare of any person or persons entrusted to my care. I will cooperate fully with the staff in the fulfillment of my duties and will keep all information I encounter, in my role as a volunteer, confidential. If at any time I find that for any reason I am unable to support the policies, procedures or doctrine of Youth Unlimited Edmonton, I will gracefully and quietly resign my volunteer position. If my supervisors find that I am in conflict with any of the policies, procedures or doctrines and we are not able to resolve the issue, I will gracefully and quietly agree to resign my volunteer position.

I hereby acknowledge that, to the best of my knowledge, the information contained in this application for volunteer program is true and correct. I accept and agree to adhere to the Statement of Faith of Youth Unlimited Edmonton.

Confidentiality: I understand that I will obtain or have access to sensitive and confidential information in my role as a volunteer with Youth Unlimited Edmonton. That confidential information may include, without restriction, personal information regarding employees, volunteers, members, attendees, supporters or persons assisted by Youth Unlimited Edmonton including information in relation to donations, personal or family matters, or obtained from background screening of prospective employees or volunteers. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality of all such confidential information and I will not disclose such information to anyone (including to employees, volunteers, members, attendees, supporters, persons assisted, or my spouse or family members) except authorized representatives of Youth Unlimited Edmonton who need to know such information or as required by law. I understand and agree that confidentiality is very important in my role and critical to the effective functioning of Youth Unlimited Edmonton. If I become aware that any confidential information was improperly disclosed, I will immediately advise the Director of Operations of Youth Unlimited Edmonton.

PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT WITH YOUNG PEOPLE POLICY

Youth Unlimited/Youth for Christ Edmonton (YFCED) believes in absolute professional propriety with regard to its work with young people. As such all the following policies are mandatory for YFCED staff and volunteers. It is the responsibility of the individual volunteer or staff member and their immediate supervisor to ensure compliance with these policies.

-No YFCED volunteer will be permitted to be alone with a youth at any time, unless receiving prior consent from their supervisor.

-No YFCED staff or volunteer will be alone in a vehicle with any young person connected with the work of YFCED. If a journey needs to be conducted, a third person, preferably a staff, should always be present. In exceptional circumstances where such a journey is of crucial importance [medical emergency etc] and no other staff or volunteer is available, the staff/volunteer must ensure that the youth rides in the back seat only. The staff/volunteer must call their supervisor and inform them of departure and then again on arrival.

-No staff member or volunteer should have any young person connected with the work of YFCED under the age of 18 stay in their house over night. On exceptional occasions where this is deemed necessary, other staff or volunteers are to be present and parents or guardians must give written permission. No staff member or person acting in a capacity as YFCED volunteer is to stay overnight alone with any such young person.

-It is recognized that private conversations are sometimes a necessary part of youth work. These conversations will be conducted in a public building or public place where both youth and leader are visible to others. [YFCED drop in centres, restaurants, etc.],

-YFCED is under legal obligations with respect to the knowledge it or its officers possesses regarding young people under the age of 18. As such the relevant authorities will always be contacted immediately, should YFCED come into any knowledge regarding abuse, self-harm, suicide, underage runaways or illegal activities of any form. All supervisors should make sure all staff and volunteers are aware of the correct procedures for doing this.

-All YFCED staff and volunteers must submit to criminal record checks. Copies of all checks must be submitted to the YFCED head offices for HR purposes.
