10. Policy To Protect Personal Information

10.1. Accountability

10.1.1. The Executive Director, or designate, is the Personal Information Compliance Officer (the "Officer") for Edmonton Youth For Christ Society ("EYFCS").

10.1.2. All persons, whether employees, volunteers, or board or committee members who collect, process, or use personal information shall be accountable for such information to the Officer.

10.1.3. EYFCS's Policy To Protect Personal Information (the "Policy") shall be made available via EYFCS's website (www.yuedmonton.com), or a paper copy provided upon written request.

10.1.4. Any personal information transferred to a third party for processing is subject to this Policy. The Officer shall use contractual or other appropriate means to protect personal information at a level comparable to this Policy while a third party is processing this information.

10.1.5. Personal information to be collected, retained, or used by EYFCS shall be done so only after the Officer gives written approval. This information shall be secured according to the Officer's instructions.

10.1.6. Any person who believes EYFCS uses personal information collected, retained, or used for purposes other than those that person explicitly approved may contact the Officer to register a complaint or to make any related inquiry.

10.1.7. Upon receiving a complaint from any person regarding the collection, retention, or use of personal information, the Officer shall promptly investigate the complaint and notify the person who complained about his/her findings and corrective action taken, if any.

10.1.8. Upon receiving the response from the Officer, the person who filed the complaint may, if he/she is not satisfied, appeal to EYFCS's Board of Directors to review and determine the disposition of the complaint at issue.

10.1.9. The determination of the Board of Directors shall be final and the Officer shall abide by and implement any of its recommendations.

10.1.10. The Officer shall communicate and explain this Policy and give training regarding it to all employees and volunteers who might be in a position to collect, retain, or use personal information.

10.1.11. The Officer shall prepare and disseminate information to the public which explains EYFCS's protection of personal information policies and procedures.

10.2. Identifying Purposes

10.2.1. The Officer shall document the purpose for which personal information is collected to comply with the openness and individual access principles outlined below.

10.2.2. The Officer shall determine the information that will be needed to fulfill the purposes for which the information is to be collected, to comply with the limited collection principle below.

10.2.3. The Officer shall ensure that the information collected will not be used for any other purpose before obtaining the individual's approval, unless the new purpose is required by law.

10.2.4. The Officer shall ensure that a person collecting personal information will be able to explain to the individual why this is being done.

10.2.5. The Officer shall ensure that limited collection, limited use, disclosure, and retention principles are respected in identifying why personal information is to be collected.

10.3. Consent

10.3.1. The Officer shall ensure that the individual from whom personal information is collected consents to this and to it being used and disclosed.

10.3.2. The Officer shall ensure that the individual can reasonably understand why and how the information will be used when the consent is given.

10.3.3. The Officer shall ensure that no condition is attached to supplying benefits, because of EYFCS’s activities, requiring the individual to give consent for the collection, use, or disclosure of information beyond that required to fulfill the explicitly specified and legitimate purposes.

10.3.4. The Officer shall ensure that express consent is obtained wherever possible and appropriate. In rare circumstances where, in the Officer’s opinion (having regard to the information’s sensitivity and the Policy’s purpose and intent), implied consent might be acceptable.

10.3.5. In obtaining consent, the Officer shall ensure that the individual’s reasonable expectations are respected.

10.3.6. The Officer shall ensure that the express consent obtained from an individual is clear and in an appropriately verifiable form.

10.3.7. The Officer shall ensure that the individual may withdraw consent at any time, subject to legal or contractual restrictions and reasonable notice. The individual shall promptly be informed of the withdrawal’s implications.

10.4. Limiting Collection

10.4.1. The Officer shall ensure that personal information will not be collected indiscriminately. Both the amount and type of information collected shall be limited to that which is necessary to fulfil the purposes identified. The Officer shall specify the type of information to be collected, according to the openness principle.

10.4.2. The Officer shall ensure that information is collected only by fair and lawful means without misleading or deceiving individuals as to the reason.

10.4.3. The Officer shall ensure that the identifying purposes and consent principles are followed in identifying why personal information is to be collected.

10.5. Limiting Use, Disclosure, and Retention

10.5.1. The Officer shall ensure that personal information shall not be used or disclosed for purposes other than those for which it was collected, except with the consent of the individual or as required by law, and any use of personal information shall be properly documented.

10.5.2. The Officer shall ensure that all personal information is destroyed, erased, or made anonymous as soon as the purpose for which it was collected is no longer relevant, or as permitted by law. There shall be an automatic review of the need to continue retaining personal information annually. Except as required to be retained by law, all personal information shall be deleted, erased, or made anonymous no later than seven years after the purpose for which it was collected has been completed.

10.5.3. The Officer shall ensure that all use, disclosure, and retention decisions are made in light of the consent principle, the identifying purposes principle and the individual access principle.

10.6. Accuracy

10.6.1. The Officer shall reasonably ensure that the personal information is accurate, complete, and up to date, taking into account the individual's interests. The Officer shall ensure that the information is sufficiently accurate, complete, and up to date to minimize the possibility that inappropriate information might be used to make a decision about an individual.

10.6.2. The Officer shall ensure that EYFCS does not routinely update personal information, unless it is necessary to fulfill the purposes for which the information was collected.

10.6.3. The Officer shall ensure that personal information used on an ongoing basis, including information that is disclosed to third parties, should generally be accurate and up to date, unless limits to the requirement for accuracy are clearly set out.

10.7. Safeguards

10.7.1. The Officer shall ensure that EYFCS has security safeguards to protect personal information against loss or theft, as well as unauthorized access, disclosure, copying, use, or modification. He/she shall do this regardless of the format in which EYFCS holds the information.

10.7.2. Depending on the information's sensitivity, the Officer may permit reasonable discretion regarding the information that has been collected: the amount, distribution, format, and the method of storage. A higher level of protection shall safeguard more sensitive information according to the consent principle's considerations.

10.7.3. The Officer shall ensure that the protection methods include:

10.7.3.1. physical measures, for example, locked filing cabinets and restricted access to offices;

10.7.3.2. organizational measures, for example, security clearance and limiting access on a "need-to-know" basis; and

10.7.3.3. technological measures, for example, the use of passwords and encryption.

10.7.4. The Officer shall ensure that all employees and volunteers know the importance of keeping personal information confidential.

10.7.5. The Officer shall ensure that care is taken when personal information is disposed of or destroyed to prevent unauthorized parties from gaining access to it.

10.8. Openness

10.8.1. The Officer shall ensure that EYFCS is open about its policies and practices regarding the management of personal information. The policies and information about the related practices shall be available without unreasonable effort in a format generally understandable.

10.8.2. The Officer shall ensure that the information available shall include,

(a) the name or title and address of the Officer who is accountable for EYFCS's policies and practices and to whom complaints or inquiries can be forwarded;

(b) the means of gaining access to personal information held by EYFCS;

(c) a description of the type of personal information held by EYFCS, including a general account of its use;

(d) a copy of any brochures or other information that explain EYFCS's policies, standards, or codes; and

(e) what personal information is made available to related organizations (e.g., organizations that are affiliated).

10.8.3. The Officer shall ensure the information that must be provided according to 8.2 is available at the locations EYFCS operates, online, or through the mail.

10.9. Individual Access

10.9.1. The Officer shall ensure that, upon written request, EYFCS shall inform an individual whether EYFCS holds personal information about him/her. If possible, the information's source shall also be given. EYFCS shall allow the individual access to this information. EYFCS may, however, choose to make sensitive medical information about its employees or volunteers available through a medical practitioner. EYFCS shall also account for the use that has been made or is being made of this information and give an account as to the third parties to whom it has been disclosed. (Note, If the Officer believes for valid reasons that access to personal information should be denied, the Officer shall consult legal counsel before making such a decision.)

10.9.2. A person requesting his/her personal information may be required by the Officer to give sufficient information to permit EYFCS to provide an account of the existence, use, and disclosure of personal information. Information shall be used only for the purpose for which it was obtained.

10.9.3. If EYFCS has supplied personal information about an individual to third parties, the Officer shall ensure that an attempt is made to be as specific as possible. When it is impossible to give a list of organizations to which EYFCS has actually disclosed information about an individual, EYFCS shall provide a list of organizations to which it might have disclosed information about the individual.

10.9.4. The Officer shall ensure that EYFCS responds to an individual's request within a reasonable time and at minimal or no cost to the individual. The requested information shall be made available in a generally understandable form. For example, EYFCS shall explain abbreviations or codes it uses to record information.

10.9.5. The Officer shall ensure that when an individual successfully demonstrates the inaccuracy or incompleteness of personal information, EYFCS shall amend the information as required. Depending on the information challenged, amendment involves the correction, deletion, or addition of information. When appropriate, the amended information shall be transmitted to third parties having access to the information in question.

10.9.6. The Officer shall ensure that when a challenge is not resolved to the individual's satisfaction, EYFCS shall record the unresolved challenge's substance. When appropriate, the unresolved challenge's existence shall be transmitted to third parties having access to the information in question.

10.10. Challenging Compliance

10.10.1. The Officer is authorized to address a challenge concerning compliance with the above principles

10.10.2. The Officer shall develop procedures to receive and respond to complaints or inquiries about the policies and practices regarding the handling of personal information. The compliance procedures shall be easily accessible and simple to use.

10.10.3. The Officer shall inform individuals inquiring about lodging complaints that relevant complaint procedures exist.

10.10.4. The Officer shall investigate all complaints. If a complaint is found to be justified, the Officer shall take appropriate measures, including, if necessary, amending this Policy and general policies and practices pertaining to personal information entrusted to EYFCS.
